FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

The Commission on Judicial Nomination Releases List of Seven Nominees In Connection With Upcoming Vacancy

Under New York's Constitution, the Commission on Judicial Nomination is charged with evaluating, and then recommending to the Governor, candidates to fill vacancies on the State's highest court, the New York Court of Appeals. The Commission vigorously seeks out, carefully evaluates, and then nominates to the Governor well qualified candidates from the extraordinary, diverse community of lawyers who have been admitted to practice in New York State for at least 10 years.

In connection with the upcoming vacancy on the Court created by the mandatory age retirement of Associate Judge Robert S. Smith, as of December 31, 2014, the Commission today has released its Report to the Governor. The Report contains the names of seven candidates who in the Commission's collective judgment are well qualified, by virtue of their character, temperament, professional aptitude, experience, qualifications and fitness for office, to fulfill the duties of that high office.

The Commission's Report follows months of outreach efforts that were conducted through public announcements, individual solicitations of applications and an informational meeting held by the Commission in New York City. These efforts resulted in the receipt of 53 applications. The applicant pool was also diverse. Of those 53 applicants, approximately 34% were women, and 24% of diverse backgrounds. The Commission ultimately interviewed 22 candidates, of whom 10 (45%) were female, and 4 (18%) were ethnic minorities.

Judge Judith S. Kaye, Chair of the Commission, stated, "I am gratified by the extraordinary quality and diverse backgrounds of our applicants. That so many exceptional candidates were motivated to apply demonstrates the remarkable strength and depth of the legal profession in the State of New York."

The Commission's seven nominees to the Governor are, in alphabetical order:

- Kathy H. Chin, Esq., attorney in private practice (Cadwalader, Wickersham & Taft LLP);
- Hon. Eugene M. Fahey, Associate Justice, Appellate Division, Fourth Department;
- Hector Gonzalez, attorney in private practice (Dechert LLP);
- Hon. Erin M. Peradotto, Associate Justice, Appellate Division, Fourth Department;
- Mary Kay Vyskocil, Esq., attorney in private practice (Simpson Thatcher & Bartlett LLP);
- Rowan D. Wilson, Esq., attorney in private practice (Cravath, Swaine & Moore, LLP)
- Stephen P. Younger, Esq., attorney in private practice (Patterson Belknap Webb & Tyler LLP)

Pursuant to Judiciary Law § 68(1)(a), the Governor is to make his appointment from among these seven nominees between January 1 and 15, 2015. The State Senate has thirty days after receipt of the Governor's nomination to confirm or reject the appointment.

The Honorable Andrew M. Cuomo
Executive Chamber
State Capitol
Albany, New York 12224

Dear Governor Cuomo:

As Chair of the Commission on Judicial Nomination, I have the honor to report to you on behalf of the Commission, pursuant to Article 6, Section 2 of the Constitution, and Section 63(3) of Article 3-A of the Judiciary Law, the names of seven candidates for your consideration for appointment to the office of Associate Judge of the Court of Appeals. These candidates in the collective judgment of the Commission are well qualified, by virtue of their character, temperament, professional aptitude, experience, qualifications and fitness for office, to discharge the duties of that high office. The vacancy in that office is the result of the mandatory retirement of Associate Judge Robert S. Smith by reason of age, as of December 31, 2014.

The Commission took many steps to seek out the largest number of well qualified applicants for this Court vacancy, consistent with our mandate to “conduct broad outreach to encourage wide participation in the application process.” 22 N.Y.C.R.R. § 7100.6. For example, the Commission disseminated statewide notice of the vacancy and application procedure, and continued its outreach efforts through the date of the application deadline. Notice was sent to the media, bar associations, New York law schools, and members of the judiciary and the State government. The Commissioners also engaged in individual solicitation of applications.

The Commission conducted an informational meeting on September 8, 2014, at the New York City Bar Association, 42 West 44th Street, New York, New York, concerning the vacancy and the candidate application process. The meeting included as speakers and panelists: Michael A. Cardozo, former Corporation Counsel for the City of New York; Carmen Beauchamp Ciparick, former Senior Associate Judge of the Court of Appeals; Howard A. Levine, former Associate Judge of the Court of Appeals; Debra L. Raskin, President, New York City Bar Association; George Bundy Smith, former Associate Judge of the Court of Appeals; Henry M. Greenberg, Counsel to the Commission; and myself.

The Commission's outreach efforts were once again successful. The Commission disseminated over 86 applications through its website. Ultimately, 53 candidates submitted applications to the Commission. Of the 53 candidates, 39 of them had previously submitted applications for at least one prior vacancy, and 14 candidates newly applied for the current vacancy. Approximately 34% of the applications were submitted by female candidates and 24% by candidates of diverse backgrounds.

The Commission met on November 3 and 4, 2014 to conduct in-person interviews of 22 candidates. Of the 22 total applicants interviewed in connection with the current vacancy, 10 (45%) were female, and 4 (18%) were ethnic minorities. As before, the Commission interviewed candidates from all corners of the State, of varying personal and professional backgrounds, drawing from the bench, the practicing bar and the private sector.

Consistent with past practice, the Commission staff investigated the qualifications of the applicants. The result of each investigation was reported to the Commission and discussed before and after the interviews. The Commission sought by its investigations and interviews to address each candidate's character, temperament, professional aptitude, experience, qualifications and fitness for office.

The candidates thus nominated by the Commission for the office of Associate Judge, and listed in alphabetical order, are:

- Kathy H. Chin, Esq.
- Hon. Eugene M. Fahey
- Hector Gonzalez, Esq.
- Hon. Erin M. Peradotto
- Mary Kay Vyskocil, Esq.
- Rowan D. Wilson, Esq.
- Stephen P. Younger, Esq.

Each candidate recommended for the office of Associate Judge has been interviewed by the Commission and each has filed the financial statement required by law, which is being transmitted to you separately. A summary of the careers of the recommended candidates is attached.

In her litigation practice, Ms. Chin has handled cases in the areas of health care and real estate involving air rights, zoning, leasehold valuation, mortgage foreclosure, employment discrimination, RICO, and other commercial matters. Ms. Chin has also been actively involved in pro bono matters, including assisting families of uniformed personnel who perished on 9/11.

Since 2003, Ms. Chin has served on the New York City Commission to Combat Police Corruption; and since 2013 she has served on Chief Judge Jonathan Lippman's Commercial Division Advisory Council. She also was a member of Governor Mario M. Cuomo's Screening Committee for the First Judicial Department; the New York City Planning Commission; the Magistrate Judge Merit Selection Panel for the Eastern District of New York; the Second Circuit Judicial Conference Planning and Program Committee; Chief Judge Judith S. Kaye's Commission to Promote Public Confidence in Judicial Elections; and Chief Judge Lippman's Attorney Emeritus Advisory Council.

Hon. Eugene M. Fahey

Justice Eugene M. Fahey, an Associate Justice of the Appellate Division, Fourth Department, was found by the Commission to be well qualified for the position of Associate Judge based on his character, temperament, professional aptitude, experience, qualifications and fitness for office. The Commission previously included Justice Fahey on lists submitted to the Governor for prior vacancies in 2012, 2013 and 2014. He was interviewed by the Commission for the current vacancy on November 3, 2014.

Justice Fahey received his undergraduate degree (cum laude) from SUNY at Buffalo in 1974 and his law degree from SUNY Buffalo Law School in 1984. He subsequently received an M.A. in European History from SUNY at Buffalo in 1998. Following law school, he worked in private practice from 1985 through 1993. From 1995 to 1996, he served as a Judge on the Buffalo City Court, and as a Justice of the New York State Supreme Court, Eighth Judicial District, from 1997 to 2006. During 2005 and 2006, Justice Fahey was assigned to the Commercial Division. He was appointed to the Appellate Division in 2006.

Previously, Justice Fahey served as a member of Buffalo's Common Council both before and after law school (1978-1983, 1988-1994). Justice Fahey has been involved in Western New York community organizations including Deaf Adult Services of Western New York, Inc., Buffalo Neighborhood Housing Services and Fillmore-Leroy Area Residents, Inc.

Hector Gonzalez, Esq.

Hector Gonzalez, a partner at the law firm of Dechert LLP in New York City, was found by the Commission to be well qualified for the position of Associate Judge based on his character, temperament, professional aptitude, experience, qualifications and fitness for office. He was interviewed by the Commission on November 3, 2014.

Mr. Gonzalez received his undergraduate degree from Manhattan College in 1985. He graduated in 1988 from the University of Pennsylvania Law School, where he was an Editor of the Law Review. In 1995, Mr. Gonzalez received an M.A. in Criminal Justice from the City University of New York.

Mr. Gonzalez began his legal career as an associate at a large law firm in New York City from 1988 through 1990. He was an Assistant District Attorney at the New York County District Attorney's Office from 1990 through 1993, and returned to private practice from 1993 through 1994. In 1994, Mr. Gonzalez joined the United States Attorney's Office for the Southern District of New York, where he served as an Assistant United States Attorney in the Criminal Division until 1997 and as Deputy Chief and then Chief of the Narcotics Unit from 1997 through 1999. In 1999, he became a partner at the law firm of Mayer Brown LLP, where he remained until he joined his current firm in 2011.

In his litigation practice, Mr. Gonzalez has handled criminal, civil, and regulatory matters, including cases in the areas of securities, bankruptcy, antitrust, white collar crime, and professional liability. In 2012, he was appointed as a Special Master by the U.S. District Court for the district for the Eastern District of New York in a discrimination case involving the New York City Fire Department.

Since 2003, Mr. Gonzalez has served on the Board of Directors of the New York Lawyers for the Public Interest. He has been a member of the New York City Civilian Complaint Review Board and the Latino Justice Board of Directors.

Hon. Erin M. Peradotto

Justice Erin M.
