DECLARATION OF KEILA RAVELO

I, Keila Ravelo, declare pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1746:

1. I am a former partner at Willkie Farr & Gallagher LLP (“Willkie Farr”). Before I was a partner at Willkie Farr, I was a partner at Hunton & Williams LLP (“Hunton & Williams”).

2. While at Hunton & Williams and Willkie Farr, I represented MasterCard International Incorporated and MasterCard Incorporated (collectively, “MasterCard”), including in the Visa Check/MasterMoney class action litigation and in MDL 1720.

3. I played a prominent role in the defense of MasterCard in MDL 1720. I participated in strategy meetings, attended mediation sessions, and managed a team of partners and associates working on the case under my direction at Willkie Farr.

4. I regularly advised MasterCard in-house counsel on MasterCard’s litigation strategy in MDL 1720, on issues relating to the negotiation of the settlement, and in connection with the various mediations that led to the settlement.

5. When advising MasterCard and communicating with co-counsel in MDL 1720, including regarding the negotiation and finalization of the settlement and in connection with mediation sessions, I drew upon all the information in my possession that affected MasterCard's interests, including the information I was provided by Gary Friedman.

6. I am willing to appear at a deposition to testify regarding these matters, subject to instructions from my counsel.

I declare under penalty of perjury under the laws of the United States of America that the foregoing is true and correct to the best of my knowledge.
